RECENT PROJECTS

'Married to a Paedophile' (CH4 – Brinkworth Films) Producer/Director - Colette Camden

This landmark 90-minute program documents the life-changing impacts that convicted paedophile's crimes inflict on their own family members. This film adopted a new and unprecedented technique that used actors to lip-sync over pre-recorded accounts from family members, in order to protect their identity. I completed all documentary recordings, and the programme won a Royal Television Society award for Best Non-Drama Sound, a Broadcast Award for Best Original Program, and was nominated for the RTS Best Single Programme and the Grierson Best Single Documentary.

OTHER CREDITS INCLUDE

SOUND RECORDIST & DATA MANAGER

'OW: American High School' (BBC1 - Swan Films) Producer/Director - Marcus Plowright

This six-part series entailed six-months filming in a segregated African-American high school in South Carolina, U.S.A. The film focused on the day-to-day struggles of the students, their ambitions for the future and the challenges brought on by their socio-economic situation. Winner best documentary at Broadcast Digital Awards.

'Grayson Perry: All Man' (CH4 - Swan Films) Producer/Director - Neil Crombie

A three-part series with Turner-winning artist Grayson Perry investigating contemporary masculinity across the U.K. His previous two series for Swan won Specialist Factual BAFTA but although nominated didn't win three years running.

'Muslim Drag Queens' (CH4 - Swan Films) Producer/Director - Marcus Plowright

A single documentary following members of Britain's underground Muslim drag queen community. A powerful and controversial film supported and narrated by Sir Ian McKellen. Winner British Academy Television Craft Award for Breakthrough Talent.
